All of the 253 General-Election Campaign Events in 2012 Occurred in States Where Romney's Percentage of the Two-Party Vote Was Between 45% and 51%

The states are listed below in order of Romney's 2012 percentage—with the most Republican (red) states at the top.

The second column shows the total number of general-election campaign events for each state (out of a nationwide total of 253).

The only states that received any campaign events (second column) and any significant ad money (third column) were the 12 states (shown in black in the middle of the table) where the Romney received between 45% and 51% of the vote—that is, within 3 points of his nationwide percentage of 48%.

The fourth column shows donations from each state.
